

佛 教 新 聞

Buddhist News in Free China

Translated by M^{rs}. H. Y. Li

All Religious Bodies Back up the Anti-communist Movement of the Continental Students

Mourning Services Held for the Heroic Souls of the Dead Students

Taipei—The religious bodies here after hearing that the anti-communist movement in Wuchang Hankow region exploded held meetings to back up the movement and decided to hold mourning services for the heroic souls of the dead students, Messrs. C. K. Wang, Y. W. Chung and H. Y. Yang. The decision was informed to all the monasteries by the Chinese Buddhist Association.

Taipei—The Shihpu Temple, Shantao Temple of Taipei, the Linchi Temple of Yuanshan and the Yilan Buddhist Association and the Mushan Buddha Repeating Society of Yilan all held a mourning service according to the instructions of the Chinese Buddhist Association.

Buddhist Posted Bulletin at the Bus Stop of Putze

Putze—The Chinghsin Vihara of Putze intending to spread the Buddha Dharma to the great mass got the permission of Mr. C. K. Huang of Putze bus stop of Chiayi Bus Company to publish a Buddhist posted Bulletin on the wall of the bus waiting room together with all kinds of Buddhist Publications and Photos. They expect every one to lend them Buddhist photos and references for three day exhibition.

Photos of Thailand Journey by Editor

Chu Lent by Chinese Nationalist Party

Taipei—More than sixty pieces of photos taken by Editor F. Chu during his journey to Thailand were lent by the Central Office of the Nationalist Party to show to the overseas. The photos were all of the Buddhist activities of the 2500th. Buddha Jayanti (anniversary) at Thailand.

Ven. Hsinjan Preached along the Beach Line

Tunghsiao—Ven. Hsinjan, the Editor of the Chinese Buddhism and the president of the Young Buddhist Cultivating

Society, with followers Messrs. H. M. Chan and H. T. Wu preached at the hall of the Sutra Temple of Tunghsiao. The Venerable is also the preceptor of the Tunghsiao Buddha Repeating Society. They repeated Amitabha before the Preaching and showed lantern slide afterwards. They continued the preaching to Chingsui and Taichung

The Supplementary Class of the Lotus Club of Taichung held a Congratulating Meeting for the Teachers' Festival

Taichung—The Supplementary Class of the Lotus Club of Taichung held a congratulating meeting for teachers' festival on the birth day of Confucius. The program was very interesting.

The Chienchen Buddha Repeating Society of Kaohsung Called upon Buddhists in Middle Taiwan

Taichung—more than forty members of the Chienchen Buddha Repeating Society of Kaohsung call upon Ven. Chan yuen of Puli, Lingshan Temple and the Lotus Club of Taichung.

Sila (precepts) Teaching at the Lingshan Temple

Taichung—For the commemoration of the new hall of the Lingshan Temple a Sila teaching service for Upasakas and Upasikas (lay disciples) will be held. Three refuges, five precepts and the precepts of Bodhisattva will be transmitted for seven days

The Ven. Wenchu of Hongkong Went South

Taichung—The Ven. Wenchu, a Bhikshuni writer of Bodhedrum, performed a trip to the south. She was hotly welcomed. She went to Taichung, the Sun Moon Lake, Kaohsung, Penghu, Tainan, Yilan, Talieokeng and Keelung. She visited many Temples and Buddhist parties and gave speeches everywhere. She left for Hongkong after the travel.

Many Kindergartens Established by Buddhist Temples

Taichung—Kindergartens were established by Buddhists in Taichung, Kaoming Temple of Putze and Tungching Temple of Hualien.